Greetings from the Public Inquiries Team,

On behalf of the Secretary-General, thank you for your letter which has been referred to this office for reply. The contents of your message have been read and duly noted.

We appreciate receiving your thoughts on reform. That subject has been underway at the United Nations for some time and measures to streamline the Organization have been introduced, but the matter remains under discussion. The Secretary-General has emphasized that the United Nations is only meaningful if it is effective and relevant, and that one of our priorities is to deliver concrete results that will make people's lives safer, healthier, more prosperous and free from fear and injustice. Please visit www.un.org/reform/ for further information.

Thank you for your interest in the United Nations and for taking the time to write to us.

Best regards,

Public Inquiries Team
